

Your NHS Library

(Hampshire Healthcare Library Service)

You are welcome to wear a mask in the library if you prefer but there are currently no restrictions in non-clinical areas by the NHS, or the university.

Winchester Healthcare Library staff are usually based at the far end of the Martial Rose Library (MRL) issue desk in Winchester University Library from Monday to Friday, except Bank Holidays. If not available, please email or phone using the contact details below.

To Borrow and Return Books (in the Education Centre coffee lounge)

To borrow NHS books please make sure you have signed up for and received an NHS HHLS library card. Please see NHS library staff or check our website at <https://www.hantshealthcarelibrary.nhs.uk/joining-the-library.asp>

To borrow books please see staff, or fill in the book borrowing sheet located at the end of the shelves, carefully noting your library card and book numbers. You can also email us these details the same day.

Any books that you wish to return may be placed in the blue wooden book bin at the MRL University Library issue desk, or in the purple book bin in the main RHCH hospital opposite Clifton Ward between the Management and Security Offices.

Training, article and book requests, literature searches

We can help NHS staff with any information enquiries, carry out searches and help you to do your own. Students should check with their university library first.

How to find Winchester NHS Library

Inside the Martial Rose Library, University of Winchester

From the Education Centre

Turn left down the hill and turn right to the Give Way sign at Burma Road.

Or

From the main Hospital

Follow the path down past the multi-storey car park, all the way down to Burma Road.

Then

Using Steps -

- 1) Cross straight over the Burma Road junction and you will find a sign post directing you to the Martial Rose Library
- 2) Follow the steps downwards and you will find a gold coloured building, The Anchorage, in front of you
- 3) You are able to turn left or right to get around this building
- 4) The Martial Rose Library is straight ahead of you

Avoiding steps -

- 1) Turn left and walk along Burma Road
- 2) You may either turn at the first left, down the steep slope, or walk along the road and double back on yourself in front of the University reception and café
- 3) Walk between the bollards, aiming right, past the garden borders and the Student Services
- 4) The Martial Rose Library is opposite the chapel
