News items, books, reports

Including items from NSPCC's CASPAR bulletin

CentreForum has published the first report of its Commission on children and young people's mental health. Key findings include: services turn away, on average, 23% of children and teenagers referred to them; there is a wide variation in average waiting times for different service providers; children and young people with mental health problems are still not always getting the right treatment, at the right time, in the right place.
